NUMBER 21

VOLUME III.

POMEROY, MEIGS COUNTY, OHIO, TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1860.

LAWS OF OHIO. PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

[No. 106.] AN ACT Providing for the appointment and more thorough system of accountabil-ner of working the Convicts.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Genhold his office for the term of one year, months, nor more than one year. and diligently discharge the duties of death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor, until the next session of the General Assembly. The said Directors shall charge of their duties, and actual trav- exceeding ten hours per day. eling expenses, to be paid out of the duty of at least two of the Directors to at the office of the penitentiary every three months, to make a quarterly setshops of the institution, and record the nal, signed by each member present, if at least two good and sufficient free-hold into the charge, and discharge or retain missed, or dies, or resigns before the ex- service to which he has been sentenced, securities, to be approved by the Directors, Attorney General and Auditor of formance of the several duties which are hereby, or which may from time to time shall, within five days after the close of states of the several duties which are shall, within five days after the close of the several duties which are shall, within five days after the close of the several duties which are shall, within five days after the close of the institution in grance of such violation of discipline), sanitary oversight of the prison; and shall ded, a uniform credit of three months communicate to the directors, at each for the hire of said convicts may be allowed for the State, it lations for the discipline and government passage. general meeting, on the general charac- lowed by the warden and directors to shall be paid for by the State.

r gular books in the office of the institu- tors.

tering upon the duties of his office, shall terests of the institution. Minor con- provision shall be void. take and subscribe an oath or affirmation victs shall be instructed separate and SEC. 13. Convicts may be hired in them. to support the constitution of the United States and of this State, and to faithfully apart from convicts who are not minors. States and of this State, and to faithfully apart from convicts who are not minors. States and of this State, and to faithfully apart from convicts who are not minors. Sec. 20. It shall be the duty of the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract, and for any time not exceeding deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract, and for any time not exceeding deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract, and for any time not exceeding deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the difference of the contract in the difference of the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the difference of the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the difference of the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the difference of the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the deputy warden to keep a book, in which provisions of this act, every such contract in the deputy warden to keep a book, in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in which is a contract in the deputy warden to keep a book in the deputy wa such Director. In case of a vacancy by physician, nor shall either of the officers convicts shall be given to the highest fraction of the published rules of dis- with the said warden and directors at the place in the institution.

men under twenty-one years of age. (un-near the penitentiary, visit the prison at least once each day, and have a general least once each day and have a general least once each day and have a general least once each day are least once each day and have a general least once each day are least once each day ar sanitary oversight of the prison; and shall ded, a uniform credit of three months manner as other over-work money. If time, establish by-laws, rules and regulation and seventeen is hereby repealed, and seventee physician shall receive for his services a sum not exceeding eight hundred dollars per annum.

those specified in the next preceding the money as in cases of State funds, and the money as in cases of State funds, and the money as in cases of State funds, and the money as in cases of State funds, and the money as in cases of State funds, and the money as in cases of State funds, and the warden shall dispose of the receipts at each session thereof; and provided, prosecutions for Minor offenses. SEC. 4. The warden shall receive an shall pay over the same to the treasurer as directed in the tenth section of this always, that nothing in this act shall be annual compensation for his services, not of State at the close of each month; and act. The treasurer shall open and keep so construed as to prevent officers of the annual compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The clerk shall receive an annual compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The clerk shall receive an annual compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The clerk shall receive an annual compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The close of each month; and on the fund to be denominated into the nated "the prisoner's over-work fund." respective offices until their successors treasury in the same manner that other treasures in office shall be appointed and completely and the fund to be denominated and compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The cleasures shall be certified into the nated "the prisoner's over-work fund." Each convict, at the close of his term, of the fund to be denominated and compensation for his services, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. The cleasures shall be certified into the nated "the prisoner's over-work fund." Each convict, at the close of his term, in office shall be appointed and convicts at the close of his term. clerk shall receive an annual compensation for his services, not exceeding one shall receive an annual compensation for all moneys so paid over by the his servicites, not exceeding eight hundred dollars; and each assistant keeper shall receive a compensation not exceeding for dollars per month, except the might watch who may receive a compensation not exceeding for the manual compensation of all such moneys are certified into the treasury; the same manuer that other thousand dollars. The deputy warden shall be given, but the auditor of, State, one with the auditor of, State, one with the auditor of, State, one with the auditor of state, the warden, at any time, shall receive a compensation not exceeding for the moneys are certified into the treasury; the close of his term, may draw from the treasury his proportion of the fund, upon the certificate of the convicts upon such branches of business and upon the written request of the convicts upon such branches of business and in the penitentary, shall be appointed and qualified.

SEC. 24. The warden and directors may enter into contracts for working the one of which shall be forthwith deposited with the auditor of, State, the warden, at any time, shall receive a compensation not exceeding eight hundred dollars; and each assistant keeper shall receive an annual compensation for all moneys so paid over by the warden warden the treasury his proportion of the fund, upon the certificate of the treasury in the same manuer that other moneys are certified into the treasury; and each convict, at the close of his term, may draw from the treasury be an upon the certificate of the warden, at any time, and upon the written required to state of the convicts upon such branches of business and in the penited and qualified.

SEC. 24. The warden and directors may enter into contracts for working the warden; at the interest of the convicts upon such branches of business and the with the auditor of State, the warden, at any time, and the other reasures of the convicts upon such branch might watch, who may receive forty-nve of all such moneys received and paid due any convict from the fund, or any of the penitenmight watch, who may receive forty-nve dollars per month, to be determined by the directors. No person so employed shall be entitled to or receive any persons or received and paid over the receive shall be entitled to or receive any per-tractors. And if any person so employed SEC. 11. All accounts for claims to regulate and fix the appointment, dufessors to any involuntry examination shall receive any compensation or reward against the penitentiary, whether for ties, dismissals and salary of all officers or surgical operation. of any description from any contractor salaries, provisions, clothing, medicines, or agents of the penitentiary, not other- SEC 26 Itshall belowful for the direction from any contractor salaries, provisions, clothing, medicines, or agents of the penitentiary, not other- in force from and after its passage. to promote the interests or advantage of repairs, building, or other object, shall wise provided for by law, and annually, tors and warden to suitably see and at such contractor, or shall make use of be made in duplicate—one to the and ler on or before the lifteenth day of Novem-their discretion, any prisoner who by Speaker of the House of Representatives. any property of any description belong of State and one to the compared or ber, subsait to the Governor of the trate meritorious conduct may signally serve ing to the penitentiary, for his own pri- the treasury, be certified by the warden. a report of the condition of the prison, the interests of the institution or the State; vate purpose, unless the same shall have countersigned by the clerk, and out to perher with suggestions as to the im- and permit extra reward to be given to tion at a price agreed on with the warden | Sec. 12. All contracts for provisions, | Sec. 18. It shall be the duty of the | Sec. 27. That in every case in which and directors, such person shall be clothing, medicines, forage fuel, build- warden to provide all convicts with a a new warden for the penitentiary shall agent or employee of any such contractor, terly on the certificate of the directors. published in each of the counties adjoin- succeeding morning. or who is interested either directly or inThe chaplain shall be a minister of the ling Franklin county, and in such other SEC. 19. It shall not be lawful to make source; it shall be the duty of the sucdirectly, in any kind or branch of busi- gospel, in good standing in some one of papers as the warden and directors may use of a shower bath in the punishment ceeding warden to give to his predecesor ness in the institution; and should any the denominations of this State, who shall deem expedient; and where any two bids of a convict, but it shall be lawful to in office his receipt for such property Director become so interested at any time be competent to teach the ordinary shall be equal, the warden and directors punish prisoners for the infraction of the and moneys as may be scheduled and during his term of office, it shall be cause branches of an English education; and may select any one of them as the per-discipline, by solitary confinement in aclivered over to him as aforesaid; and for his removal; and upon satisfactory in- who shall reside in or near the peniten- son who shall have the contract; and such dark cells, and by deprivation of food if any such retiring warden shall refuse And ride my father's untamed colts formation given of such fact the Gov- tiary, and devote his whole time and contractor shall give bond and security, other than bread and water, and any of- or neglect to comply with any of the ernor is hereby authorized and required ability to the welfare of the convicts con- to the satisfaction of the directors, for ficer who shall violate any of the provis- provisions of this section, he shall be to remove such Director, which removal, fined therein; and shall, in addition to the faithful performance of his contract; ions of this act, shall be discharged from held guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conwith the reasons therefor, shall be en- his clerical services, teach such of the provided, no contract shall be given or his office at the discretion of the direc- viction thereof, shall be fined in any tered on the journals of the penitentiary, convicts as he and the warden may se- purchase made wherein either of the diand the Governor shall report the same lect, the art of reading, writing, arith- rectors or any of the officers of the peni- the discipline of the prison shall be and be imprisoned in the county jail for to the General Assembly at the next ses- metic and geography, at such hours as tentiary is interested; and all contracts printed in the language of the convict any period not less than one month, nor sion. Each of said Directors before en- may be found most conducive to the in- or purchases made in violation of this and posted in each cell, and otherwise more than six months, or both, at the

their number either warden, chaplain or five years. All contracts for working shall be entered a record of every in- tracting party shall file his said bond here mentioned hold any other office or place in the institution.

bidder, of the letting of which the direction of the prisoner so time of putting in such proposals or bids tors shall give at least six weeks notice, guilty, and the punishment inflicted for each contract, which said bond shall SEC. 6. That each convict possessing in two daily or weekly papers in the city therefor, which record shall be submitted be in such sum as the said warden and a fair knowledge of reading, writing and of Columbus, two in the city of Cincin- to the directors at their regular session; directors shall direct, conditioned that each receive three dollars per diem for the time actually employed in the discontinuous excepted, not charge of their duties, and actual travectors are diem for the time actually employed in the discontinuous excepted, not charge of their duties, and actual travectors to give security to the state of the directors of the directors to give security to the state of the directors of the directors to give security to the state of the directors of t SEC. 7. The warden is hereby author- of Ohio for the faithful performance of fraction of the discipline so recorded faithful performance of the contract on State Treasury on the certificate of the ized, so far as practicable with existing their contracts, in such amounts as the against him, shall for the first month be the part of such contracting party, and Warden as to the time of their services. contracts, (and all contracts hereafter directors, in their judgment, may think entitled to a dimunition of one day from no bid or proposals shall be received, SEC. 2. The board shall make annual made for convict labor may so provide,) proper and right. All convicts not conweeks, examine the work shops, cells, it,) in a shop or shops by themselves, conducive to the interests of the state. from his sentence; and if he shall con- ing their compensation, prescribing to be provided for the purpose. It shall or who shall be convicted a second time now have contracts for convict labor, be entitled to five days dimunition of of laws inconsistent with the provisions be the duty of all the Directors to meet of penitentiary offenses, or whose con- and so to make all future contracts as time from his sentence for each subse- of this act are hereby repealed, and the duct may require it, shall be worked in will permit the convicts to have a cer- quent month he shall so continue in his terms of all persons now holding office a shop by themselves and all incorrigi- tain amount of labor allotted them each good behavior; and if any prisoner shall under the provisions of the acts hereby said guard or officer, as justice may re- piration of the sentence of the convict the directors shall have the power to dewho may have funds in his hands, he prive, at their discretion, such convict shall be subject to such by-laws and claims shall bear interest at the rate of six as may appear to them equitable in comprison labor, unless by consent of parshall find to remain due and unsatisfied tors and warden for the government of which the labor was performed; and, on quired of other prisoners. If such labor be indorsed upon the original contract all cases wherein service may be made tors and warden for the government of the prison. The directors shall appoint a physician, who shall attend to all the which the labor was performed; and, on payment, the State treasurer shall exemples and signed by the parties, which shall be binding in all respects as though no of the order may be made out of the prisoners. It such that the is performed for a contractor or the be binding in all respects as though no of the order may be made out of the prisoners. It such that the isometric than the indirectors which shall be binding in all respects as though no of the order may be made out of the prisoners. It such that the indirectors which shall be indirected upon the original contract and signed by the parties, which shall be binding in all respects as though no original contract and signed by the parties, which shall be binding in all respects as though no original contract. a physician, who shall attend to all the cases of sickness among convicts, reside near the penitentiary, visit the prison at either for themselves or families; or shall on what accounts received, and shall be warden's account, the different apart- week during the annual college terms, powers and duties of Justices of the be permitted to receive any compensation immediately deposited with the auditor ments of the prison, and the condition for clinical instruction, provided that no Peace and Constables in criminal cases," of the prisoners, and shall have power convict shall be subjected by such pro- passed March 6th, 1845, be and the cessary. deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and ings or repairs, where the amount shall clean straw bed, and sufficiency of coverbe appointed, the warden whose term of true copies from the Original Rolls on released, the poor fellow took to his raskale vat vill take him till he choke. bleed oxen, cows and sheep once a week, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, ering at all times to protect them from office shall have expired, shall deliver file in this office.

in any sum not exceeding five hundred shall be given to the lowest bidder; pro- the inclemency of the season, and also over to his successor quiet and peaceable dollars, and be imprisoned in the county vided, in case of the acceptance of any with garments of a coarse material suited possession of the penitentiary buildings. jail not exceeding sixty days, and shall bid, and the bidder fails to complete the to and sufficient for the season; and he with all the property of the State in his be discharged from his office. And if contract, the next lowest bidder shall shall furnish them with a sufficiency of possession, together with the convicts: any officer procure the escape of any net be entitled to the contract, unless coarse but wholesome food, with such and it shall be the duty of such succeedconvict, or connive at, or aid, or assist in the price be deemed reasonable by the warthe escape of any convict from the peniden and directors; but the warden and physician of the penitentiary shall be receipt for the property and convicts

The days when we went gipsying ity of Officers of the Ohio Penitentiary, tentiary, whether such convict escape or directors may then contract with any most conducive to the health of the pris- aforesaid; the warden whose term of offixing their Compensation, prescribing not, he shall, on conviction thereof, be one whose offer may be regarded just oners; and it shall be the duty of the fice shall have expired shall also make their Duties and determining the man- sentenced to hard labor in the peniten- and proper. No bids herein authorized warden, when in his opinion it shall be out, under oath, a full and detailed actiary for any term not less than one nor shall be received, or contract made in necessary, to employ suitable persons to count of all the receipts and expendimore than three years, and if any other pursuance thereof, unless the same be instruct the prisoners in any work in tures of the penitentiary since his last eral Assembly of the State of Ohio, That person shall aid or assist in the escape of reasonable, and not greater than the which they may be employed, when the annual report, or that have not been rethere shall be appointed by the Gov- any convict from the penitentiary, such usual market value and price. So far as same is for State purposes, and during ported to the auditor of State at any ernor, by and with the advice and conperson shall, on conviction thereof, be sent of the Senate, three Directors of the sentenced to hard labor in the penitenor paddle in the brooks.

Or paddle in the brooks.

Or paddle in the brooks.

And sometimes, I remember, I Ohio Penitentiary; one of whom shall tiary, for any term not less than six contracts shall be let to run more than viction may be had shall direct to be in of all the property in his possession as such Have made a shingle boat, six months, nor shall any contract be solitary cells, such prisoner shall be con- warden, belonging to the State, consistone for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years; and cach of directors to appoint a chaplain of the auditor and directors to appoint a chaplain of the auditor and articles medicines, forage, and all kind I know the mud pulled off my shoe, their successors shall hold his office for Ohio Penitentiary, who shall hold his and place of letting each contract shall directors may deem proper; and one or of provisions provided for the penitenthe term of three years. No person office for one year, and who shall receive be given for at least two consecutive more guards shall patrol said penitenshall be appointed a Director who is a an annual compensation not exceeding weeks in two daily newspapers in Columcontractor in the penitentiary, or the eight hundred dollars, to be paid quar- bus, and in one of the weekly papers the night, until the hour of labor on the on hand, stating in full the sources of published so each prisoner shall know discretion of the court.

mployed by the directors and warden recorded against him, he shall be enti- more thorough system of accountability tlement of the accounts of the Warden, and inspect the various departments and inspect the various departments and shops of the institution and record the shops of the shop warden and directors, or a majority of be occupied in attending the prison thereof from the warden, and upon pre- whose terms of office are provided for in result of their investigation in the jour- them, may deem most fitting for them, school or in labor for the contractor at sentation thereof to the Governor, he this act. the same rate the contractors pays the shall be entitled to a restoration of all SEC. 20. This act to take effect from and all shall be agreed; if otherwise, the same work; and if any con-rights of citizenship which may have after its passage. opinions of the dissenting members shall the purchasing of all articles for the in- vict, who shall have so made overwork, been forfeited by his conviction; and it stitution—clothing, provision, medicines, shall for any cause be unable to make shall be the duty of the warden to dis- Speaker of the House of Representatives. material for building or repairs, or any full work on any other day or days, no charge such convict from the penitenjority of them, shall appoint a Warden, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, unless sooner removed by the Directors; but in case of removal the Directors; but in case of removal the shall be its executive officer; and in case the warden for the convict the same as therefrom, in the same manner as if no [No. 42. reasons therefor shall be entered on the any guard, or subordinate officer of the money due the institution from the consultation fr institution should violate any of the tractors, (with the exception of the al- that if such convict shall be guilty of shall take an oath or affirmation faith-laws or rules of the prison, it shall be fully to discharge the duties of his of-the duty of the warden to suspend said shall permit the convict to send the lished rules of the prison after he shall, fice, and give bond to the State of Ohio, offending guard or officer until the meet amounts so earned to his family or as provided in this section, have become in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with ing of the directors, who shall examine friends, and in case the warden is dis-general meeting, on the general characters of the health of the prisoners during the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the close of each month, to the observance and enforcement of such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the preceding three months, with such lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November day of November, in the close of each month, to lower day of November day of suggestions in regard thereto as he may each year, payment in full for the predeem necessary, which communications shall be entered on the journal. The physician shall receive for his services a physician shall receive for his services and receive for his services a physician shall receive for his services and receive for his first been paid for or charged on the dorsed "approved" by at least two direc- provements that may to them appear ne- prisoners, not interfering with the inter-

said moneys and the amount from each I used to hunt for "black-bird's" nests

SEC. 28. That whenever any bond is appointments of one of their number president of the board. It shall be the age and disposition—placing all young of the Directors to visit the institution together every two less the conduct of the same shall forbid in such manner as they may deem most tled to two additional days dimunition of officers of the Ohio penitentiary, fixrooms, and the books and vouchers of the Warden, and enter the result of their duties, and determining the manthe Warden, and enter the result of their duties, and determining the manbeneficial to them when discharged; and warden and directors to make such ara third month, his time shall be shortner of working the convicts," passed

To anybody's ball. investigation in a book called a journal, persons convicted of the higher crimes, rangements with the contractors who ened three additional days; and he shall April 12, 1858, and all laws and parts I wonder what is "gipsying"— tablish a Code of Civil Proceedure," passed March 11, 1853.

ROBERT C. KIRK, President of the Senate. Passed March 24, 1860.

section four hundred and seventeen of According to the argument for the This peculiar faculty he discovered only requiring a press so rapid, and on which the above recited act be so amended as to read as follows: Section 417. If a virtue, and went in for everything to merit notice apart from the fact that interruption from January to December. judgment become dormant, it may be re- labeled Democratic, without any partic- he teaches classes and individuals. He labeled Democratic without any partic- he teaches classes and individuals. He labeled Democratic amounts SEC. 9. The warden of the penitentiary formance of the several duties which are hereby, or which may from time to time be required of him by law, which said bond shall be deposited with the auditor of State and comptroller of the advice and consent of the directors, shall have power to advice and consent of the directors, sistant keepers as the directors may deem necessary; all of whom shall be an oath of a file that the defendant is a non-resident of the same manner as is present the same manner as is present to which the plaintiff to such detailed account for the amount the same of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline) of the dimunition of the term of sentence of such violation of discipline and the same manner as is present to which the same manner as is present to which the same manner as is present to the defendant of the defendant is a non-resident of the Administration to which the same manner as is present in t necessary; all of whom shall take an oath of labor on which said contract was of labor on which said contract was lieved to be anti-Democratic and immoral. Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of the lieved to be anti-Democratic and immoral. or affirmation faithfully to discharge their duties, and give bonds to the State of Ohio, the clerk and deputy warden in of Ohio, the clerk and deputy warden in the sum of three thousand dollars each, and the assistant keepers, in the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, to be approved by the directors, which sonds shall be deposited with the treasury as in other cases; and if or of State. All the above officers shall be subject to such as the sum of State. All the above officers shall be subject to such as the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and the assistant keepers, in the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the State treasury as in other cases; and if owing the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the same into the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the same into the same into the sum of three thousand dollars each, with security, and when paid certify the same into the same into the state treasury as in other cases; and if the variety of a bell of the amount, he utters it in a loud tone without a why or wherefore, for heruld apparently in an eestacy. He says this is making improper use thereof, in which and it is making improper use thereof, in which and it is making improper use thereof, in which and the evidence, and directed as a shall not be revived against the judgment shall not be revived for the amount, he utters it in a loud tone within the vidence of their without a why or wherefore, for heruld allowance of with the eans the judgment shall not be revived against the judgment shall not be revived against the judgment shall not be revived for the amount, which the commonths, and M. Dumas expects to the contrary, the judgment shall no shall be subject to such by-laws and rules as may be prescribed by the direction of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of labor representation of the month in parison with the amount of the month in parison with the month in parison

President of the Senate. March 10, 1860.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That tinued the Englishman.

shall be entitled to or receive any perquisites, in the shape of board, provisions, carriages, horses, or otherwise, either for themselves or familiar or shall be entitled to or receive any perions, carriages, horses, or otherwise, either for themselves or familiar or shall be entitled to or receive any perions, carriages, horses, or otherwise,
either for themselves or familiar or shall be entitled to or receive any perions, carriages, horses, or otherwise, either for themselves or familiar or shall be each quarter of the year; such statement of the answer, shall be entitled to or receive any perions, carriages, horses, or otherwise, on what accounts received, and shall be offender at once apologized, and our the offender at once apolog same are hereby repealed. SEC. 3. This act to take effect and b RICHARD C. PARSONS, ROBERT C. KIRK.

President of the Senate. March 10, 1860.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, }

Hoetry.

GIPSYING. BY MABEL ST. CLAIR

Long time ago." wonder if I ever went-I'm sure I do not knowknow I used to steal away From school and musty books, Through "pussy willow" swamps to stray, Or paddle in the brooks.

The snags my stockings tore, Down stream, a half a mile or more. Replacing eggs with color'd stones used to wreathe my tangled curls Fantastic'ly with flowers,

And waded more than ankle high

Around the fields, for hours. No bridle could I boast of, save A handful of their mane; And if I tumbled in the ditch, I tumbled on again. And when at length I wander'd home, My clothes in such a plight, My mother'd say, "There, child, you come A perfect little fright." And then she'd say I was a romp,

And that she'd never see ME such a lady as she wished Her little girl to be. know I loved my mother much, And when she gently laid Her hand upon the short brown curls That kinkled 'round my head-

And talked to me as now I know A watchful mother should, In future to be good. Yet, the' I am a woman now,

I'm sure I do not knowwonder if I ever went "Long time ago." SPRING HILL, Ohio, Highly Important Decision-Democracy not Bound to be Consistent with Itself, Several Democrats at Auburn, N. Y. subscribed $600 to establish a weekly Democratic newspaper, the Auburn Democrat. One of the subscribers, Franklin L. Sheldon, a Douglas Demobecause it sustained the Administration against Douglas, and refused to pay the last hundred dollars of his subscription. dreds of these little parasites were re-Thereupon Henry M. Stone, the pubteen of an Act entitled "an Act to cs- lisher of the paper, sued Mr. Sheldon for the balance of his subscription. Mr. A Phenomena in Additton. Sheldon resisted the payment, and plead There is now in New York, a young pressly for Webster's Spelling Book, that the paper established had not proved man of slight figure, master of a certain which prints both sides at once. As this SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That tion was therefore void. that name, and that a Democratic editor is not bound to be consistent with him-> into an English port, and the lieutenant politician: went on shore to reconnoitre. In the Charles J. Ingersoll, whose Democ- in the cabin—"None at all, gentlemen, long to the United States, I see.'

servants for a moment; but finally one his wood, should a feller whale a feller

"It's lucky for you, shipmate, that you have no brains to blow out!"

More Chivalry. A North Carolina paper says:

freely upon the slave question and Har- her mama's sight? per's Ferry affair, in the village of Salisbury, North Carolina, was recently upon a fence-rail and carried to a neigh- tel?" boring duck pond, where, in the presence "I did not, monseur, and expect to do head of an epitaph? of an immense throng of people, he was so the balance of the day.' I certify that the foregoing acts are ducked until he recanted. Upon being "By gar! if he gets stole, I vill kill ze

In his Covington speech, Cassius M. lay calls the threat of dissolving the tract, from a famous Union speech, re-Union in case a Republican President ported by T. Hulbert Underwood: is elected in 1860-a new Democratic dodge-and says:

dodge for 1860. If you elect a Repub- was through, and before the crowd had lican President, "we will dissolve the dispersed, a man who styled himself "The Union." Who are we? Let us look at Aforesaid M. D.," was called for. He that. "We," the slave-holders, the was lifted upon the platform, so "elevanumber one, might, under some focilish ted" that he could not stand without prejudices, think that they could do bet-holding on to something. He said: ter by dissolving the Union; but what Gentlemen and ladies, you're talkin' are you the twenty men from Kentucky, of dissolvin' the Union; you can't do it! going to do? Why dissolve the Union? Thar's that are flag a-wavin' up thar, Answer me that. We the Republicans, say that in the free Territories of our common country there shall be a place reserved for you and your children, in case misfortune or slave competition thing can't be did. [Cheers.] shall drive you from your homes into And thar's that good old toon that the meled and undegraded again by labor- eh? Are ye a-goin to give the Yankee

When the old lady refused to give her [Cheers.] anything she wanted, she would go to And thar's all the fast hosses standing the top of the stairs and say, "now, round here; how are ye a-goin' to divide grand-mother, give it to me, or I will them? old hosses! Are ye a-goin' to run throw myself down stairs." And the 'em North, and run 'em South, and run good woman would be much moved and 'em East, and run 'em West? [Cheers.] would say, "don't, for God's sake, throw | And thar's all the handsome wimmur vourself down stairs!" Is there any man round here; how are ye a-goin' to divide who is a laborer, who does not feel that them? Are you goin' to give the old this thing of slavery is degrading to him? ones to the Norf, and the young ones to Is there any that does not feel this?— the Souf? Waal, you don't. If you go Have I not felt it? Have not my chil- to thunder you can't do it! [Immense dren felt it since I have been thrown into cheering.] this new attitude of non-slaveholder, and And thar's all the feathered tribe and down stairs?

they are kept in good healthy condition, to the South? [Tremendous cheering.] em to enjoy life nearly, if not quite as wild-wood-especially if, either from lack of memory or blissful ignorance, the caged birds do not know what pleasure they lose. "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." One of the birds, and to the pleasure of keeping them, is lice, and having recently learned of a safe and sure way of removing them, we give it to our readers. The Michi- termined now than ever to insist, at the flannel over the cage, several nights in succession, taking it off at daylight.— right to go into the Territories with Multitudes of the lice will be found their property, and that the right shall upon it, which are easily killed. After a few days all will be romoved. A case be protected, when necessary, by all the branches of the General Government. crat, became disgusted with the paper in which this operation has been very There can be no trifling, and, indeed, no successful has just been brought to our compromise on this subject between the notice; from a pair of bobolinks hun- Southern and Northern Democracy.

The justice was evidently a Democrat, the amount, he utters it in a loud tone grapher, three compositors, a preesman

At the late Union saving meeting in for getting rid of time was resorted to. An American sloop-of-war had put were uttered by a leading Democratic asked the captain if he had any objec-course of his travels, he entered a tavern racy is almost as old as the State House, was his bland reply, "amuse yourselves where a number of British officers were by way of a fine tribute to fiberty of in any way you like; only remember that were carousing. They at once recog- speech, referred to traveling Abolition it is the rule of the boat that all games nized the lieutenant's nationality by his lecturers, and particularly to Wendell must cease at ten o'clock." dress, and resolved to amuse themselves Phillips, who ought, he said, "to be arrested as a travelidg vagabond. [Ap- The Key West, Key of the Gulf, states "Well, comrade," says one, "you be- plause.] Those who do not concern in that when the barque Wildfire left the the sentiments of these Abolitionists, should attend their lectures and hiss "Now, what would yo do to a man them down. He stated, as a lawyer, that ican vessels waiting for cargoes of ne-

> If a feller catch a feller carrying off Cured, Eastly. if a feller could?

load of shot? If a body catch a body stealing his body's life?

seized by a mob, and tarred and leetle trunk, vat I left to-morrow, as I paper half a century | k k, without the feathered, after which he was placed vill come from ze steamboat by ze ho- thought that almost every name there

The May number of the Knicker bocker Magazine has the following ex-

During the exciting campaign of 185in Illinois, a prominent politician, made Let us look at that a while—this new a disunion speech at Quincy. After he exile, into some new country, as it has band's a-playin' out thar, called Yankee sent millions, where you shall be untram- Doodle; how ye a goin' to divide that, ing alongside the unpaid slaves. For to the Norf and the Doodle to the Souf? this you are going to dissolve the I say boldly, the thing can't be did!

Well, now, that reminds me of an an- | [Cheers.] And thar's that stream of water a-runecdote that I used to hear in old Madi-nin' down thar, called the "Father-o'son. There was a good natured old Wetters;" how are ye a-goin' to divide grand-mother who had all her children that? Are ye a-goin' to dam it up with grown up and married off, and a little Mason and Dixon's line? I say ye can't grand-child used to come and see her.— do that thing! Wal, ye can't! [Cheers.]
Well, when the child wanted anything And thar's the railroad layin' out of her grand-mother, and she found that thar; how ye a-goin' to divide that, eh? she could not prevail on her good feel- are you goin' to tie it up with Mason ings, she would exercise on her fears. and Dixon's line? You can't do it !-

now are you going to throw yourselves other bird's a-flyin' about here, and the chickens and egg's-nests, and the yallerlegs and the black-legs; how you goin' to divide them, eh? Are you goin' to give Caged birds are a source of pleasure, and while they give great happiness if the Pullets to the Norf and the Cocks to the South? Our reporter could hear no more, well as their mates in the bush or the the roars of laughter which ensued as the "Doctor" caved in and fell from the plat-

We copy the following from the Washgreat drawbacks to the happiness of ington correspondence of the Philadeladjourned Baltimore Convention, upon "Lay a piece of Canton or cotton a plain, and explicit, and unequivocal

At the printing house of the Appletons, in New York, is a press made exto be Democratic, and that his subscrip- wonderful talent. His name is Hutch- is the only press of its kind in existence, ins, and he is a native of Philadelphia. so Webster's "Speller" is the only book

On a strict western steamboat the usual amount of gambling and other expedients tions to their holding a prayer meeting who should say that your navy did not contain an officer fit for a gunboat?" continued the Englishman.

"I would blow his brains out!" replied the lieutenant with great coal. There was a leading case in plied the lieutenant with great coal. "I would blow his brains out!" re-plause.] There was a leading case in plied the lieutenant, with great cool-the books that sustained this principle." hundred negroes each, bound for Cuba:

The habit of drinking can be cured by giving the drinker all the liquor he wants to drink, all the time. We know If a body spy a body creeping round of two, says an exchange, in our own exhis lot, should a body treat a body to a perience, who were cured in three weeks. One jumped out of a four story window and ran a curb stone in his head; the "old rye," shouldn't a body kick a body other didn't get up one morning, and

If a body catch a body winking at his Many people like newspapers, but few wife, should a body with a pistol take a people preserve them; yet the most interesting reading imaginable is a file of "A scotchman named Sandy Tate, If a body love a body with a body's old newspapers. It brings up the very having expressed himself rather too might, should a body kiss a body in age, with all its bustle and every-day atfairs, and marks its genius and its spirit more than the most labored description "Mine fren, have you seen von of the historian. Who can take up a printed is cut upon a tombstone at the

A German economist proposes to